Usirian's Incantation of Vengeance

10+/13+

• 18"/36"

Instant

The target unit suffers -D3 to its Movement (to a minimum of 1) and treats all terrain (even open ground) as Dangerous Terrain, testing every time it moves (including when charging, fleeing, pursuing, moving compulsorily, etc.) until the start of the caster's next Magic phase.

Tomb Kings

Sakhmet's Incantation of the Skullstorm

15+/25+

Instant

Remains in play. Sakhmet's Incantation of the Skullstorm uses the small/large round template. Once the template is placed, the player nominates the direction in which the Skullstorm will move. To determine how many inches the template moves, roll an artillery dice and multiply the result by the caster's Wizard level. If the result on the artillery dice is a misfire, centre the template on the caster instead; the template moves a number of inches equal to the caster's Wizard level, in a random direction (if you roll a hit, the template remains where it is). Any model under, or passed over by, the template suffers a single S 5 hit. In subsequent turns, the Skullstorm travels in a random direction and moves a number of inches equal to the roll of an artillery dice (if a misfire is rolled, the Skullstorm dissipates and is removed).

Tomb Kings

The Restless Dead

- Instant

Each time a Wizard successfully casts an augment spell from the Lore of Nehekhara at a friendly, Undead unit, the target(s) of the spell immediately recovers D6+1 Wounds' worth of models, as described in Resurrecting Fallen Warriors. Ch, MI, MC, MB can only recover D3 Wounds, and Mo can only recover a single lost Wound in this way per spell.

Tomb Kings

Khsar's Incantation of the Desert Wind

5+/10+

• 24"/12"

Instant

Targets a friendly Undead unit. If unengaged, the target can immediately make a normal move (but not march or reform) as if it were the Remaining Moves sub-phase. Boosted version targets all friendly Undead units within range. No unit can be moved by Khsar's Incantation of the Desert Wind more than once per turn (though they still benefit from the Restless Dead Lore Attribute).

Tomb Kings

Djaf's Incantation of Cursed Blades

7+/10+

• 18"/36"

Instant

The target unit's close combat Attacks gain Killing Blow until the start of your next Magic phase. If the target unit's Attacks already have Killing Blow or Heroic Killing Blow, these will take effect on any To Wound rolls of a 5 or 6 whilst this spell is in play.

Tomb Kings

Light of Death

5+

• 48"

Instant

The Casket of Souls can use this spell as long as the Keeper of the Casket model is alive, and the Casket of Souls has not moved this turn. The target unit must take a LD test on 3D6, adding the results together. If the test is passed, nothing happens. Otherwise, for each point the unit failed the test by, it suffers an automatic Wound which Ignores Armour saves, distributed as for shooting attacks.

Once the LD test has been resolved, roll a D6: on a 3 or more, choose another unengaged enemy unit within Line of Sight and 6" of the initial target, which must also suffer the effects of the Light of Death spell. Keep rolling for further victims (each within Line of Sight and 6" of the last target struck), until the roll is failed or there are no more viable targets. A unit can only be the target of Light of Death once per Magic phase.
